The future is in her hands

Please give her your support

Registered Charity No. 802576

Sibongile with her sister's daughter, Charmain.

How can you help people in Africa and Asia to make life better for their communities?

When her sister was dying, Sibongile trained as a volunteer carer for Swaziland Hospice at Home with Skillshare International's support. Now her expertise brings help and comfort in a country where 4 out of 10 people are living with HIV or AIDS. Sibongile helps people in her community to get life-sustaining drugs and treatment.

Support people like Sibongile

By supporting Skillshare International, you are supporting the work of Sibongile and many people like her in Africa and Asia, striving to make life better in the most difficult of circumstances.

Long term solutions

We strengthen and empower community groups and organisations

so that people can develop their own solutions to problems and begin to speak up so that resources go where they're needed most and the results last.

Reducing poverty, inequality and injustice

For forty years, our work has helped communities in Africa and Asia to create lasting changes. That is why we know that people in Africa and Asia are best placed to improve lives for themselves in the long term.

Your donation will help us to support more people in more places. Please don't leave it until later – return the form today.
